CORRECTION TO JOURNAL

On January 30, 1978 (page 2186), the Journal reflected that House Bill No. 1914 was referred to the Committee on Agriculture. This was an error, and the Journal should have shown House Bill No. 1914 as referred to the Committee on Finance, Ways and Means.

On this same date, House Bill No. 1916 was erroneously shown as referred to the Committee on Finance, Ways and Means. House Bill No. 1916 should have been recorded as referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

STATEMENT

The Constitution of the State of Tennessee provides that the Governor shall have the power of clemency and that he, and he alone, can decide when that power can be used. The legislature has no voice in such an action and can make no laws pertaining to such action until the present Constitution is changed.

House Joint Resolution No. 271 addresses itself to this power of the Chief Executive. While I am confident the vote on this resolution will have absolutely no effect on whether or not Roger Humphreys is pardoned, I voted “Aye” on House Joint Resolution No. 271 because since this case became an issue, the people of my district oppose such a pardon.
